More than 800 people helped raise thousands at Rockin Docs July 12.

More than 800 people supported Rockin' Docs, a July 12 event that raised more than $13,000 for the Student Outreach Clinic at the University of Nevada School of Medicine and the Healing Arts Foundation through Renown Health. The event was at Wolf Run Golf Club. Four local bands comprised primarily of local doctors and medical students performed. Sol'Jibe was the main attraction. The event was organized by Dr. Louis Bonaldi of the Center for Plastic Surgery and MassMedia Corporate Communications.
